Where to find your Mary Poppins

Word of mouth - Ask everyone from your co-workers to your friends' babysitters if they know someone terrific who's looking for work.

Internet bulletin boards - Check out UrbanBaby.com, CraigsList.com, 4nannies.com, Sittercity.com.

Fliers - They're often posted at preschools, playgrounds, YMCAs, community centers.

Your local college's career center - Best if you want someone to work part time.

Nanny agencies - They'll do the legwork in exchange for approximately 10 percent of the nanny's salary.
